

CLIG Brewery Tour

Friday, July 28, 6:30pm

Summer is finally here! Time for a cold brew, wouldn't you say? Join us for a tour of the London Fields Brewery where over the course of an hour, you will be taken through the brewery while the beer making process is described to you. This will be followed by a tutored beer tasting in the Tap Room, joining the dots between the process and the glass.

You will then have an opportunity to share a pint (or two) with friends old and new at the bar. Please reserve quickly, as spaces are limited.

This tour & networking drinks are generously sponsored by Law Business Research.
